2009 Virginia AAA State Wrestling Championships

STAT NOTES

SEEDINGS

Number-one seeds won all 14 of the championships. Five Regional Champions (number-one seeds) failed to place in the top eight. All State honors were won by the following seeds: 51 number-one seeds; 31 number-two seeds; 20 number-three seeds; and 10 number-four seeds.

STAT FACTS

- Senior Jared Anongos, 135/James River, became the first Central Region State Champion (and his school's first) since David Atkins, 152/Lee-Davis, in 2002. Jared was also a four-time state placer (6th/4th/3rd/1st). Joining Jared as a four-time place winner was teammate Jordan Dix, at 130 (7th/8th/5th/4th).
- Freshman sensation Cody Allala of Hopewell won the title (his school's first) at 145 in dominating fashion, with two pins and major decisions in the semi and final. His older brother Clint Allala, a junior, was fifth at 160. They will be back next season to try for the very rare feat of state champion brothers in the same year.
- Michael Garofalo, 125/Colonial Forge, completed his outstanding high school career with his third State Championship. He was a four-time finalist (second in his sophomore year). Teammate Shane Gentry won the title at 119 for his fourth State placement (5th/3rd/2nd/1st).
- George Billy, 119/Lake Braddock, fell to Shane Gentry in the semi-final (in one of the most anticipated matches of the tournament), but came back to win third place. He completed his high school career as a three-time State Champion for three schools: 2006 at Robinson; 2007 at Boys Town, Nebraska; and 2008 at Lake Braddock.
- David Helmer, 152/Langley, won his second State Championship, and is also a four-time placer (6th/5th/1st/1st).
- Andrew Clement, 171/Grassfield, won his State Championship in exciting style with a first period pin in the final. Andrew is a three-time State Champion, his other two titles coming 2006 and 2007 at AA Christiansburg.
- Jack Burbank, 285/Cox, won his second straight State Championship and will continue his wrestling career at Old Dominion next year.

2009 Virginia AAA State Wrestling Championships

- The final at 112 was a repeat of last year's 103 final, with Beau Martino of Battlefield again defeating Ryan Hunsberger of Fauquier in another nail biter. This was an unusual event, i.e., the same finalists two years in a row. Normally, underclassmen finalists are not at the same weight the following year – for obvious reasons. The last time this happened was Walker Faison/Cox defeating Matt Rosen/Great Bridge at 103 in 2004 and at 112 in 2005.
- With Colonial Forge winning its third straight team title and Fauquier finishing second, 2009 became the first year that the Eastern Region was shut out of the top two spots (from my records dating back to 1991 and perhaps since the inception of the Virginia State wrestling championships). As a hopeful sign of parity, each of the State's four regions had at least two teams in the top ten (with the ER having four).
- 2009 also marked the first year since 1994 that the Eastern Region did not claim the lions share of State Champions. The following chart shows State Champs by region since 1990:

	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	00	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08	09
E	7	8	8	5	5	8	8	9	7	5	9	9	12	11	11	11	9	7	6	4
N	3	2	2	6	8	3	1	4	4	4	2	1	1	2	1	2	4	4	3	3
NW	1	0	1	1	0	1	4	1	2	4	3	2	0	1	2	1	1	3	5	5
C	2	3	1	1	0	1	1	0	1	1	0	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	2

*No State Champion at 112 in 1992

**13 weight classes up to 1995, 14th (215) added in 1996

NEXT SEASON

As usual, seniors dominated the 2009 State Championships, 58 placed in the top eight. Of the 54 underclassmen who placed (33 juniors, 15 sophomores, and 6 freshmen) four were State Champions.

Returns next season by region: Eastern 19; Central 14; Northwestern 13; and Northern 10. Eleven schools return two or more placers from this tournament next year: Fauquier* and Westfield 4 each; Colonial Forge, Kempsville and Robinson 3 each; and two each from Franklin County, Great Bridge, Hanover, Hopewell, James River and Matoaca.

(*Fauquier is scheduled to drop to AA next season)

ON TO THE NEXT LEVEL

Many of the young men who competed at the 2009 AAA State Tournament are planning to continue their wrestling careers at the college level. The following is a list of those seniors who are known to have plans to wrestle in college:

- 112 – Beau Martino/Battlefield - Brown University
- 119 – Shane Gentry/Colonial Forge – Naval Academy
- 119 – Sterling Briscoe/Kempsville – Kings College
- 125 – Raymon Borja/Hayfield – Naval Academy
- 125 – Jarrod Branch/Westfield – The Citadel
- 125 – Michael Garofalo/Colonial Forge – Edinboro University
- 130 – Jordan Dix/James River – VMI or West Point
- 130 – Ian Squires/Colonial Forge – Boston University
- 135 – Jared Anongos/James River – Naval Academy
- 135 – Drew Squires/Colonial Forge – Newberry College
- 152 – Matt Brunke/Mills Godwin – Old Dominion University
- 152 – David Helmer/Langley – Northwestern University
- 171 – Andrew Clement/Grassfield – Virginia Tech University
- 189 – Billy Curling/Great Bridge – Old Dominion University
- 189 – Chris Penny/Cox – Virginia Tech University
- 285 – Jack Burbank/Cox – Old Dominion University

Unfortunately (for wrestling fans), two heavyweight placers Kory Gough/3rd, and Vicquan Arrington/6th are going to Virginia Tech – to play football.
